

YOUTH DEVELOPMENT

TAKING CENTERSTAGE

What's the difference between a good reader and a good performer? A GOOD MONOLOGUE. Join us in this limited workshop series as participants develop theatrical skills to present monologues for auditions, performances, and much more.

1-2 hour sessions

1-30

THINK BEFORE YOU S.P.E.A.K.

Having a difficult time expressing yourself? Trouble organizing your ideas? Not feeling too confident when talking in front of others? Sign up today to practice effective speaking techniques that will build your fluency and poise in this custom workshop series.

1-2 hour sessions

1-30

MAKING OF A MONOLOGUE

Join us for our 5-part workshop series as students explore the ins and outs of designing dramatic monologues that highlight injustices that impact their personal lives and their communities. Participants will develop creative writing skills and presentation techniques to be showcased in a presentation for virtual and/or live audiences.

Five 90 min. sessions

10-30

INTERVIEWING WITH INTENTION

Looking to improve or strengthen your interview skills for a new job or perhaps an internship opportunity? Maybe you're preparing for a HS or College audition. Join us in this workshop series as we develop your speaking techniques while building the confidence of our participants.

1 Hour Sessions

10-50

POETIC JUSTICE

This 5-part workshop series bridges the gap between social justice warriors and performing artists. Participants take a deep dive into learning poetic devices and developing poetry that reflects issues in society/communities.

Five 1 hour sessions

5-30

Recommended Length of Session(s)

Creatyve Control

Recommended Group Size